HOW WOULD YOU FEEL—AND WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Caleb is in seventh grade and has a Twitter account. He posted a picture of himself and his family on vacation. Some kids who pick on Caleb saved and modified a copy of the picture and sent it to other people at Caleb's school, saying things like "Look at the little baby boy with his family" and "Isn't this just SOOOO sweet? LOL!"

How would you feel if you were Caleb?

What would you do?

How would you feel if you were Caleb's friend?

What would you do?

How would you feel if you were someone who saw the picture and notes going around?

What would you do?

HERE ARE SOME THINGS YOU COULD DO:

- Let a teacher, parent, or guardian know about the bullying right away
- Don't share the pictures/images with anyone but a trusted adult
- If you're Caleb: Speak up on your behalf (for example: "We had a cool vacation. No big deal.")
- If you're Caleb's friend or a bystander: Speak up on Caleb's behalf (for example: "I love going skiing with my family. What's so bad about that?")

Bullying is unacceptable, and no one needs to deal with it alone. Always seek help from a teacher, parent, or guardian if you're not sure what to do.
